SUMMER 1999

It is with great pleasure that the Secretary of State's office is once again able to offer you the ever-popular CALIFORNIA ROSTER!

Back again by demand, this invaluable publication contains a wealth of information related to California's state officeholders and agencies, U.S. congressional members and up-to-date city and county governments.

With the simple turn of a page you can make meaningful discoveries about the history of our Golden State - who was California's first-elected Governor or perhaps, when a particular city was incorporated. Using the CALIFORNIA ROSTER as a reference tool, you can verify the name and address of your legislative district representative or when and where your city council holds its regular meetings.

Whether you are conducting an historical search of past constitutional officers or merely looking for an agency telephone number, you'll find it all right here in the all-new 1999 CALIFORNIA ROSTER.

My staff has worked diligently to compile the most accurate information to meet your needs. Unfortunately, because the structure of government is constantly revolving and ever-changing, it is impossible to guarantee the accuracy of data reflected in this publication. But please be assured that every effort has been made to acquire the most complete, up-to-date information available at the time of our printing deadline.

I hope you enjoy this new edition of the CALIFORNIA ROSTER. As I value your input, your comments and suggestions are always welcome.

Sincerely,

BILL JONES
Secretary of State
